Handbook

Hosted by The American Go Association
Dear Go Friends From All Over The World,

It is my great pleasure to welcome you all to the Twin Cities for the 31st US Go Congress. After last year’s wonderful Congress in New York City, this location may seem in some way the opposite, geographically, economically, culturally, but it’s not. Residents call Minneapolis, one of the two Twin Cities, the Mini Apple, making a claim on comparison with the Big Apple of New York. In many ways, the claim is justified, as the Twin Cities plainly constitute a major American metropolis with a large population, a vibrant economic and cultural life. And like New York with the Hudson, the harbor and the ocean, these cities took their life from water, sitting astride three rivers including the headwaters of the great Mississippi, the father of waters, which almost two thousand miles upriver is a major, navigable waterway. The surrounding land is rich, wooded and well-watered, so well-watered the state is known as the Land of Lakes. Some of you may see the lakes on your time off here. New York is very much the place to visit; the Twin Cities, I’ve told, are a place to live.

 Appropriately then, North American Go history and the North American Go community both have their Twin Cities chapter. James Kerwin, the first US pro and one of the first born outside of Asia, is from here, as was John Goodell, a very active champion of the game in the 1950s and 60s and one time AGA president. Some of John’s family members are going to join us at the Congress giving us a chance to express our appreciation for his leadership. And the chapter putting on this Congress so ably and devotedly, the Twin Cities Go Club, have been stalwart friends, players and teachers over the last 10 years. Please join me in giving them gratitude during this rewarding week of play.

All the best,

Andy Okun

Hello, and welcome to the Twin Cities of Minneapolis and Saint Paul!

It was 14 years ago that I first encountered the game of Go. I had discovered the game online and sought out people who could teach me this curious game. And so, on a Saturday morning, I made my way to one of the oldest cafes in Minneapolis to learn one of the oldest games in the world. My discovery then, which is just as true today, is that the game of Go is alive and well in Minnesota. This is a place where newcomers and experts alike are welcomed as friends.

And now? Go, it seems, can even drive a group of people to invite hundreds of friends to enjoy the game together. Who would know such a commitment would also hold this small, dedicated congress team together through a series of rather significant events? A big bike crash, job changes and even cross-country relocations now mark the ebb and flow of life over the last two years. Yet here we are.

...And so, I’ll echo words from congress directors before me; by running this Congress, we hope to give back the opportunity we’ve enjoyed - to explore new parts of the world and make new friends through Go.

Professional Events

Lectures
Professionals will provide lectures targeted to different skill levels throughout the week. The topic of each lecture will be published at the Congress, along with the schedule of events. Look for daily schedule posted in various places.

Game Analysis
The Congress is the best time and place to have your game reviewed by a professional. Game reviews are group events targeted at specific skill groups, in which a professional will go over the major good and bad points of your game as you play it out on a demo board. Game Analysis will take place in various places. See daily schedules.

Simultaneous Games
Simuls are a chance for you to play against a professional.
Professionals will play games against 3, 6, or 8 players at one time. Interested attendees must sign up for simuls outside the main playing room in order to participate. No-shows will be replaced by alternates at the end of a five minute grace period. If you are not seated by the appointed time, you will forfeit your place to an alternate. You may not save a seat for a late player. Simuls will take place in the main playing room unless otherwise noted.

Simul Game Etiquette
• When the pro approaches your board for the first move, it is customary to greet him or her.
• Do not delay your move. When the pro comes around to your board, make your move.
• Do not play your move before the pro arrives. It is rude to make the pro find your move.
• Show respect for the professional by not discussing your game (or anything else) with the bystanders.
• Resign when the game is lost. Please resist the temptation to play the game out until the bitter end.
• Quietly thank the professional, and clear off the board before you leave.
• The event director reserves the right to terminate any games that are clearly lost.
• Please do not sign up for more than one simul until Thursday so that all attendees may have a chance. If you have not gotten a game by Thursday and want one, please let the staff know and we will give you priority.

Private Lessons
Many professionals are available for private lessons for an added fee, payable to the US Go Congress. Each lesson will take place in a private, assigned room.
Interested attendees should look for sign up sheets in the registration area.
Tournaments

Tournaments are open to all players except as noted. Prizes and certificates are awarded in almost all tournaments. AGA rules are the default rules unless the event specifically calls for a different set of rules.

The main tournament of the Congress, the US Open, is a six-round, Swiss-McMahon style tournament with one round played each day. The winner of the Open section will be declared the new US Open Champion.

Registration: Attendees planning to play in the US Open MUST confirm their participation upon check-in to the US Go Congress. All players who have an AGA rating are required to enter at a rank consistent with their latest AGA rating; exceptions to this rule will be allowed only with the explicit approval of the tournament directors. Players who do not have AGA ratings must enter at a rank approved by the TD. Players who wish to play in the Open section must have an AGA rating of 7.0 or higher, or the permission of the directors.

Byes: All changes must be made by 8 PM of registration day or they will not apply to the first round. Late registrants will miss the first round. If you wish to skip any game of the tournament, be sure to request a “bye” from the TDs before 8 PM the day before the round you will miss. If a bye is not recorded ahead of time and you miss your round, you will automatically forfeit the game.

Time Limits: The limit is 90 minutes per player. The overtime allotment will be 5 periods of 30 seconds each. See the section on Rules, Regulations, and Etiquette for a further explanation of overtime.

Handicaps: Games will be even in most sections, with a compensation to white (komi) of 7.5 points. In the lower kyu sections the TD will assign handicaps based on band differences. In handicap games, komi for white is 0.5 points. For sections that will be handicapped, the difference in bands is based on entry rating.

Rules: AGA rules will be used. Komi for white is 7.5 points.

Prizes: Top players in each section according to McMahon scoring will receive prizes. Award sections will be divided based on the number of participants at each entering rank.

Sealed Moves: After 12 noon, either player may request a 60 minute adjournment for lunch before his/her turn. Play is suspended when the player who is to move seals the next move along with the adjournment time in an envelope and stops the clock. The envelope is left with the TD. If a player has not returned at the end of the adjournment period, his/her clock may be restarted by the TD.

Self-Paired Tournament

Location: Anywhere
Time: Anytime
Eligibility: Open to all players
Director: John Hogan

The Self-Paired Tournament will consist of any game you want to play during the Congress that both players want the AGA to rate. You may play any other registered player. The AGA will rate a maximum of three games between any one pair of players. Play as many games as you like, any time during the week.

Time Limit: Either player may request the use of a clock. If a clock is used, time limits are set by mutual agreement. However, for a game to be AGA rated, it must have a minimum of 30 minutes per player and byoyomi of five 15-second segments. (We suggest that 45 minutes basic time is most in keeping with the spirit of this tournament.) Any deviations must be approved by the TD.

Duration: The tournament begins after registration on Saturday, August 9th. All games must be completed and results reported by noon on Saturday, August 16th.

Pairing: Opponents are self-paired. Each pair of opponents may play only three games with each other. Be sure to agree to the conditions of play before you start. For example, if you are frustrated by slow play, use a clock.

Results: Game reporting slips will be readily available on site. The winner should be circled and the loser should sign the slip; put completed slips in the box in the reporting area.

Disputes: Try to avoid them as much as possible! Remember that tournament rules apply and take them seriously. The rules themselves allow for resolution of most disputes by continuing play. If a serious disagreement arises that the players cannot resolve themselves, they may consult the director or some other agreed authority (for example kyu players may abide by the opinion of a strong dan level player), but this should be a last resort.

Handicaps: Handicaps are derived from the number of rating points separating the two players as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Rating Difference</th>
<th>Handicap</th>
<th>Komi</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>0.0 to 0.5:</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>7.5 Points for White</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0.6 to 1.5:</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0.5 Points for White</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.6 to 2.5:</td>
<td>2 Stones</td>
<td>0.5 Points</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.6 to 3.5:</td>
<td>3 Stones</td>
<td>0.5 Points</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.6 to 4.5:</td>

<tr>

<tr>

<tr>

<td>8 Stones</td>
<td>0.5 Points</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.6 and over:</td>
<td>9 Stones</td>
<td>0.5 Points</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Be sure to note the handicap level on your game reporting slip!

The rating difference is calculated according to the players’ ratings. If both players have either positive ratings (dan) or negative ratings (kyu), then simply subtract the smaller number from the larger to get the Rating Difference. For example, if a player with a rating of 3.1 were to play someone with a rating of 3.7, the Rating Difference would be 0.6 points, and the handicap would be for white to get 0.5 points komi.
If one player has a positive rating and the other player has a negative rating, then account must be taken of the fact that there are no ratings between -0.99 and +0.99 (ranks go from 1 kyu to 1 dan, with no 0 kyu or dan.) Add the absolute value of the ranks and subtract 2.0. For example, a player with a rating of 2.4 paired with a player with a rating of -1.2 would have a Rating Difference of 2.4 + 1.2 - 2.0 = 1.6 and therefore play with a handicap of 2 stones.

Pandanet AGA City League

| Location: | Strong Players Room |
| Time: | Saturday / 3 - 5pm |
| Director: | Steve Colburn |

Funded by Pandanet, the tournament is formatted similarly to the Chinese and Korean City Leagues: Each team consists of three active players, one alternate and one captain, representing a city or region in North America. Players may be either pros or amateurs.

The purpose of the league is: 1. To provide training and competition for the top AGA players, especially the professionals, 2. To promote internet Go using the Pandanet platform, and 3. To create a venue for seeking and encouraging regional sponsorship of Go in North America.

The top six teams were placed into an “A” League and played a double round-robin with each other throughout the year on the Internet Go Server (Pandanet-IGS). Other teams were placed into “B,” “C” and “D” leagues, for a total of 28 teams. The top finisher in the “B” League moves up to the A League after each season, replacing the bottom A League team. This also occurs with the bottom and top of B and C, and C and D. Rules, eligibility, and more information is available on Pandanet’s Website.

The competition created excitement for the strong players, and we hope to attract more interest and regional pride in not only those who already play but also in those new to the game. Consider joining a team or creating one for your area. Cheer them on!

This year’s finalists are Los Angeles vs Greater Washington. The two are the Top finishers in the A League and will face off on Saturday August 1st at 3pm in the strong players room at 2015 US Go Congress. Boston finished third, Seattle fourth, Canwa Vancouver fifth, and San Francisco 1 sixth. Other league results will be posted at the Congress as they were not available before we went to press. Look for the announcement and congratulate all the players.

Team Los Angeles
Captain: James Kim
Players: Mark Lee, Evan Cho, Daniel Ko, Seung Hyun Hong

Team Greater Washington
Captain: I-Han Lui
Players: Tim Song, Eric Lui, Yuan Zhou, Jie Li

Rules & Guidelines

General Playing Rules
The official American Go Association Rules of Go for amateur play are in effect at the U.S. Go Congress and are available in all playing areas and posted online at www.usgo.org/tournaments/Resources/.

If you have any questions or would like clarification, please speak to a Congress Director, Tournament Director, or office staff member and we will be happy to help.

Summary of AGA Rules
There are a few details of the AGA rules of Go that even experienced players may not know about, especially those players coming from other countries. Below, we explain a few key points of AGA rules which may differ from Japanese or Chinese rules. For the complete rules, please see the official AGA Rules of Go, available online at www.usgo.org/files/pdf/completerules.pdf

1. AGA rules use territory counting (similar to Japanese rules) by default. If both players agree, they may use area counting (similar to Chinese rules) instead.

2. When a player passes, they must give their opponent a stone to add to the prisoners. This ensures that the result is always the same regardless of which counting method you use. This also means that any unclear situation on the board can be resolved by the players without the help of a referee. Players should fill all the dame during the game and only pass at the very end.

3. White MUST pass the last stone. If the game ends with black’s pass, white must make an additional pass. If there is a dispute, the game re-starts with a black play or pass.

4. If a player makes an illegal move — for example, taking a ko out of turn — the move must be taken back and treated as a pass (be sure to pass the stone as a prisoner).

5. It is illegal to repeat the same board position with the same player’s turn, just like a simple ko. If a board position has occurred before, but on the other player’s turn, it is still legal. Passing is always legal.

6. In even games, komi is 7.5 points. In handicap games, komi is 0.5 points. If the players agree to count by area in a handicap game, white receives an additional point of komi for every black stone after the first (e.g., in a 9-stone handicap game, white receives 8.5-point komi). This ensures that the handicap result is the same with area and territory counting.

Conduct Guidelines
• Tournaments should be enjoyable for all.
• Please show respect for your opponent and other players at all times.
• Games should be won by superior talent and technique.
• Refrain from distracting behavior and noisemaking near tournament play.
• Please analyze games away from tournament play.
• Please show courtesy by arriving promptly for all events.
• Report all results immediately after the conclusion of your games.
• Be courteous in defeat and generous in victory. Remember that you will have ample opportunity to experience both during the week.
• Resign when you have clearly lost.
• Please make every effort to aid those who are not native English speakers and who may have trouble understanding the Congress regulations and schedule.
Setting Ing Clocks

These instructions explain how to set clocks manufactured by the Ing Chang-ki Wei-Chi Education Foundation.

1. Open the lid on the top of the clock.
2. The Set/Run button must be in SET mode (down).
3. The BT/RS (Basic Time/Read Seconds) button must be in BT mode (down).
4. The On/Off button must be in ON mode (down). After the clock is turned on, the screens will be lit. After two seconds the clock will show 0:00.
5. To set the basic time, the large white button controls the hours and the large black button controls the minutes. Press these buttons until the proper numbers show. Holding the button down makes the numbers increase rapidly. If you pass the desired number you must go to the end and back around or turn the clock off and start over.
6. To set overtime (secondary) time, the BT/RS button must be in RS mode (up).
7. The number of periods is controlled by the large black button and the number of seconds per period is controlled by the large white button. The Ing clocks will only do this type of secondary time. They cannot be set for Canadian style overtime (such as 20 moves in 5 minutes).
8. Now put the Set/Run button in Run mode (up).
9. Close the lid.

The clock is now ready to be used for timing the game. We recommend turning the volume down as far as possible.

Players press the large buttons to signal the end of a move; listen for the beep to be sure the clock has switched to the other side. By pressing the small black button, you can see how much time the other player has left. In an even game, white presses the large white button to start black’s clock to begin the game. In handicap games, black presses the large black button after placing the handicap stones to start white’s clock and begin the game.

If you need to pause the clock during the game (in case of some sort of dispute, for example), simply put the Set/Run button in Set mode (down). When ready to resume, return the button to Run mode (up).

The Teachers’ Workshop is in its third year. We are all here because we love Go and want to see it become as familiar in America as any other game. To achieve that, we must teach more. For that, we need teachers. The more techniques teachers have, the more successful they will be. The workshop is dedicated to that concept. We welcome anyone who would like to learn how to be a better teacher to join us.

Attendees of the course will receive a certificate as an AGA authorized Go teacher.

Registration is open and you can sign up even after arriving at the Congress. And even if you are not going for the complete workshop, you may drop in on any of the sessions.
Day-off Activities

Wednesday, August 5th is the Congress day off, where attendees have the opportunity to take a break from the intense Go matches to explore the area.

St Croix River Boat Ride (group trip, $57.50 per person)
Stillwater, MN is a charming town located on the St. Croix River that is a popular destination for Twin Cities residents. Stillwater is home to many restaurants, bars, antique shops, and bed & breakfast establishments. Congress attendees will take a bus to Stillwater. The focal point of this visit will be a 2.5 hour private riverboat tour on the St. Croix River from 12-3pm. This boat tour will include the following food options: choice of 2 hamburgers/beef brisket/bratwurst/chicken breast coupled with a choice of potato salad or coleslaw, baked beans, fresh fruit and all the trimmings. There will also be live music on the boat tour.

Uptown Lakes Shuttle Trip (group tip, transportation cost to be announced)
Uptown is home to many great restaurants, bars, shops, and theaters. The highlight of this area is a chain of four lakes (Lake Harriet, Lake Calhoun, Lake of the Isles, and Cedar Lake) that are connected by bike and pedestrian paths.

Congress attendees will take a shuttle from St. Thomas to Lake Calhoun. At Lake Calhoun, attendees can rent bikes, paddle boats, canoes, kayaks, and paddleboards. Wheel Fun Rentals (www.wheelfunrentals.com) has a rental station on Lake Calhoun right near the restaurant/concession stand on the northeast side of the lake.

Harriet, Calhoun, and Cedar Lakes all have public beaches for swimming. Lake Harriet boasts an extensive rose garden with adjacent peace (rock) garden. If you are around Lake Calhoun, another point of interest is the Bakken museum (www.thebakken.org) which explores the history of electricity and magnetism. For those interested in biking, the Midtown Greenway runs between Lake of the Isles and Lake Calhoun. This path cuts through Minneapolis, isolated from car traffic, and connects to many other trails. It is approximately a 7-mile ride on trails from the University of St. Thomas to Uptown by bike.

St. Anthony Main / Stone Arch Bridge (self-guided)
The St. Anthony Main area is a cobblestone street along the Mississippi that hosts a number of restaurants with outdoor seating. This area is connected to the facing bank of the river by the beautiful Stone Arch Bridge that is strictly for pedestrians and cyclists. On the other side is Mill Ruins park, Mill City museum, and the Guthrie Theater. This location offers Segway tours (www.humanonastick.com/tours.htm).

Grand Avenue (self-guided)
Grand Avenue is a popular street in St. Paul that is home to many restaurants and boutiques. Better yet, it is located very close to the University of St. Thomas. Consider taking a stroll down Grand Ave on your day off or another congress day.

Como Park (self-guided)
Located in St. Paul, this large park contains a small amusement park, zoo, and conservatory (www.comozooconservatory.org). Congress attendees with family may want to consider visiting this location, though the zoo and conservatory offer a great experience for all ages.
Mall of America (self-guided)
The Mall of America (www.mallofamerica.com) is not only home to 4 levels of shopping, it also has an amusement park with rollercoasters and carnival rides at its center. The Mall of America is accessible by the light rail blue line.

Minneapolis Institute of Arts (self-guided)
If you are looking for the traditional art museum experience in the Twin Cities, you will want to check out MIA. (new.artsmia.org) MIA is also located near Nicollet Mall, or “Eat Street” where you can grab a variety of ethnic cuisines.

Transportation

Bus
The closest bus route servicing the University of Saint Thomas is the 21, which stops on the corner of Summit Ave and Cretin Ave, right outside of the Anderson Student Center. This bus runs approximately once every 20 minutes during peak times. The 21 bus travels between Uptown and downtown St. Paul. You can also use this bus to connect to the light rail station on Lake Street. Complete bus schedule, pricing, and information can be found at www.metrotransit.org. Multi-day passes are also available.

Lightrail
The Twin Cities has a developing Metro system that consists of two light rail lines: the blue line, which connects downtown Minneapolis to the Mall of America (and airport); and the green line, which connects downtown Minneapolis with downtown St. Paul. Individual ride tickets can be purchased on train platforms and can be used to transfer to another train or bus within a 2.5 hour window. Transfers obtained on buses can also be used to ride on the light rail within a 2.5 hour window. When paying for bus fare on the bus, remember to ask for a transfer.

Nice Ride Bike Share
The Twin Cities boasts an extensive bike sharing system. Information can be found at www.niceridemn.org. There is a Nice Ride station located next to the Anderson Student Center. St. Thomas is located a couple of blocks away from a trail that runs along the Mississippi river and will connect you to the Greenway, a trail that runs all the way to Uptown. A basic map of the major bike trails can be found at goo.gl/4tz5Rq.
If you are a more avid cyclist and really want to explore the area by bike, you can rent road, mountain, and hybrid bikes from Freewheel Bike (www.freewheelbike.com). They offer hourly, daily, and weekly rates on bikes.

Taxi
If congress attendees are in need of a taxi here are a couple of options:
Rainbow Taxi: (612) 332-1615
Red and White Taxi: (612) 871-1600
