Documentation and Public Availability of AGA Rule Violation Reports

Motivation:
Organizational transparency, inspired by the Clery Act (Title IX campus reporting)

This policy does not supersede policies established in the AGA Code of Conduct or Fair Play guidelines.

Policy:
Public Availability: When reports of AGA rule violations (e.g. Code of Conduct violations, Fair Play violations) come to the attention of mandatory reporters, an anonymized record of that report shall be publicly available within 1 month of becoming aware of the incident. At the request of the reporter, this will be delayed up to 6 months past becoming aware of the incident.

This policy applies to informal disclosures as well as official reports. Reports/disclosures can come from witnesses of an event that violates AGA rules.

Exceptions to this rule will be made in the case that even an anonymous and delayed public report could jeopardize the confidentiality, safety, or health of the reporter or victim.

Numbers for the current and previous two calendar years will be available.

Internal Documentation: Specific details of each report (including names, dates, details of the incident, and details of the actions taken in response) will be kept in a confidential and limited access document available only to the members of the Code of Conduct committee, the AGA Board Chair, and the AGA President. If one of these officials is named in the complaint, the detailed record of the complaint will be kept elsewhere by officials not involved.

Details may be omitted from internal records if the disclosure was not made with the expectation of official record, or if details are requested to be withheld by the reporter. Enough details should be included that if another complaint is made regarding the incident at a later point, it can be identified as a duplicate.

Definition of Mandatory Reporters: All executive officers and board members of the AGA are considered mandatory reporters, as well as individuals serving on AGA committees. TDs of AGA rated tournaments and AGA chapter representatives are also strongly encouraged to report incidents or disclosures.

The AGA Code of Conduct Committee, under the supervision of the AGA president, has the responsibility to document and make publicly available this information. Mandatory reporters should consider their duty discharged if they pass their report to representatives of the CoC Committee.

Procedures:
Public Availability: Public reports will be posted on the AGA website using the following template and updated according to aforedescribed policies. Summaries will be sent out via the E-Journal annually reminding members of the availability of this report.
