

AGA Code of Conduct Sanction guidelines

We expect all all AGA players to exemplify respectful behavior in the spirit of the game. In the event that a report is received of a violation of this Code of Conduct, this may result in the following sanctions imposed against the offending party.

1. No sanctions. It is determined that a violation did not take place, or the situation was resolved through mediation.
2. Ejection from a tournament round, a tournament, or a multi-tournament event may be imposed by event officials. The ejection may be issued in verbal or written form. All such actions should be reported to the CCC and the AGA National Tournament Coordinator.
3. Suspension from events for a set period of time following the inciting incident(s) issued in written form. A suspension from multiple events for a period of time must be issued by the Code of Conduct Committee with approval from the AGA President. This suspension will apply to all AGA sponsored events.
4. Expulsion from AGA sponsored events indefinitely. This expulsion must be issued by the Code of Conduct Committee by unanimous vote with approval from the AGA President and enforced at all AGA sponsored events without exception.

Any person who has been sanctioned is entitled to appeal the sanction to the AGA Code of Conduct Committee. All decisions issued by the AGA Code of Conduct Committee are final. In the event that a complaint is lodged against a member of the Code of Conduct Committee, that person shall recuse themselves from all related proceedings.
